M1

Dear children

The summer vacations are here and we hope that they give you the much needed break and some time to relax! However, we do hope to keep you constructively absorbed during these days. The homework attached along with this document has been prepared by your teachers to ensure that you revise for your Periodic Tests and have some fun too. Instructions regarding the work have been provided with each subject.

So, take care of yourself and your family members, finish your pending work, revise for your exams and don't go out!

Happy Holidays!
