DATE- 2-4-2020

Q1. Read the passage and answer the following question:

While they were playing, Afzal's mother was baking her special cookies for them downstairs. Her secret was that she dipped the dough in sugar syrup to sweeten it. She could hear them as they marched along. She could even hear Afzal's command ("About turn") every time they reached one end of the room.

By and by, they were tired of playing 'Soldier'. They pulled down some old dresses and hats that were hanging on a peg, put them on, and pretended that they were grown-ups. Then, out of an old box, they dragged a scrapbook full of pictures, and sat down to look them over.

In the meantime, Lata had arrived. Lata was Afzal's friend. She was wrapped up in a yellow raincoat, and was wearing matching galoshes. She had brought a basket, with her two extremely lovable kittens in it.

" Afzal and his friends are in attic," said Afzal's mother.

So Lata ran up to find them. She did find them; but what do you think? All of them were fast asleep!

Q1. Read the passage carefully and write answer of the questions.

The girls were very hungry. For a minute no one spoke. Then suddenly Jo exclaimed, "I am so glad you came before we began!"

The woman was overjoyed to see them and called them angels. A fire soon crackled in the fireplace. The girls covered the broken windows with old hats and cloaks. Mamma gave the woman tea and gruel, and comforted her.
