Through the house what busy joy,
Just because the infant boy
Has a tiny new tooth to show!
I have got a double row,
All as white, and all as small;
Yet no one cares for mine at all.

He can say but a few half words,
Yet, those sounds are favoured
To all the words that I can say
In the longest summer day.

He cannot walk, yet if he put
With mimic motion out his foot,
As if he thought he were walking,
It's prized more than my best dancing.

The Little White Dog

Reading Junction

Little white dog with the meek brown eyes,
Tell me the boon that you most prize.
Would a juicy bone meet your heart's desire?
Or a cosy rug by a blazing fire?
Or a sudden race with a truant cat?
Or a gentle word? Or a friendly pat?

Is that ball you have always near
The dearest of all the things held dear?
Or is the home you left behind
The dream of bliss to your doggish mind?
But the little white dog just shook his head
As if "None of these are best," he said.

A boy's clear whistle soon came from the street
Ah! There's a wag of the tail and a twinkle of feet,
And the little white dog did not even say,
"Excuse me, ma'am," as he scampered away;
But I'm sure as can be, his greatest joy
Is just to trot behind that little boy.
